

Happy Habitats

A habitat is the place where a creature finds its shelter, water, air and food – all the things it needs to survive.

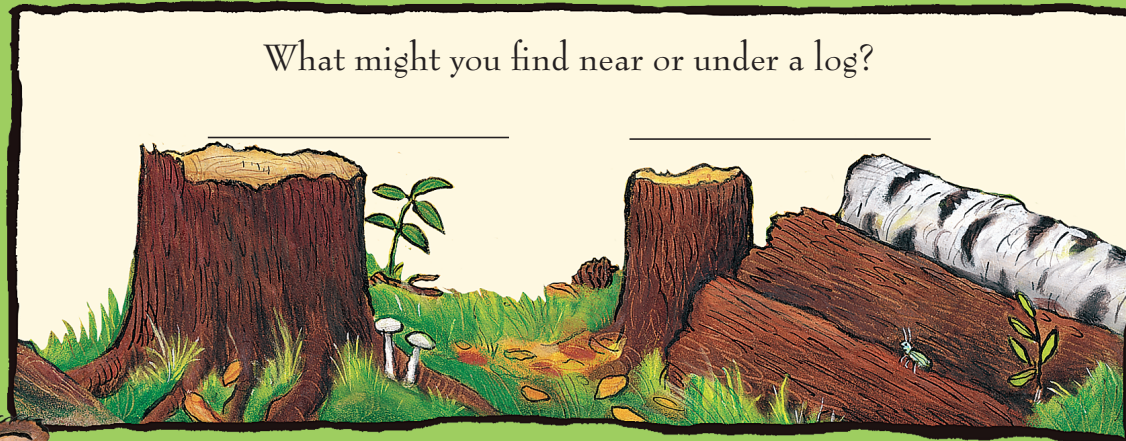

What might you see near a flower? Name three things below:

What might you find in a tree? Name two things below:

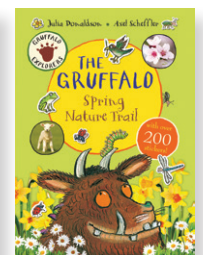

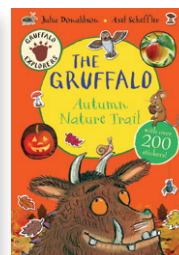

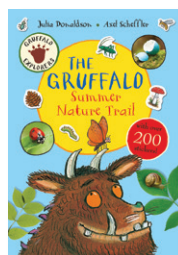

What might you find near or under a log? Name two things below:

MACMILLAN
Children's Books

For more fun Gruffalo activities visit:
www.gruffalo.com

Out now at all good book retailers